TO : Commanding Officer,
Office of Strategic Services,
ETO (Fwd), APO 867, U. S. Army.

1. For especially meritorious service in the performance of duty, the following commendation is made covering the work of Capt. CARLOS B. DAWES, QMC, O-1584101, Executive Officer, OSS Liaison Office.
2. Capt. DAWES has been under my Command, serving as Executive Officer of this Detachment, during my tour of duty as Commanding Officer from 15 March 1945 to this date. He has always been extremely attentive to duty performing his functions in an excellent manner and has been of great assistance to me in the work of this Detachment.
3. Special attention is directed to his superior performance of duty in the organization, briefing and execution of the work of the LEO Mission over the past several weeks. Because of his prompt and skillful action, while acting as temporary Commanding Officer during my absence, in the final days of the European war on the Franco-Italian border, this Detachment was able to keep up a continuous flow of valuable information to our Headquarters and by taking advantage of the fullest extent of a rapidly changing military situation Capt. DAWES established the LEO Mission solidly in ITALY where it has continued to be most effective.
4. Capt. DAWES and Sp/Sc George V. FRECHARD, USN, were the first members of the American Armed Forces on the scene of action in IMPERIA, ITALY, and it is believed these men made the link-up with the first reconnaissance unit of the Allied forces from the Mediterranean Theater of Operations coming down the Italian Coast from Genoa on 1 May 1945. No other Allied soldiers are known to have proceeded to IMPERIA, ITALY, on the date the MEDTO reconnaissance unit proceeded from GENOA to NICE.
5. In view of this especially meritorious service, it is requested that this commendation be made part of his service record.

REPORT on services rendered by

Capt. Emilio Quincy Daddario 2-535348

Captain Daddario arrived in Milan from Switzerland during the first days of the insurrection, and aided me in my work from that time until the arrival of the Allies.

His services were especially useful during negotiations with the German authorities for the purpose of neutralizing enemy armed forces who persisted in their desire to continue resistance, and forcing them to accept a truce or to surrender.

Capt. Daddario showed himself to be well informed and capable. His work deserves full recognition.

Dear Dr. Lubin:

I have your letter of 15 May 1946, regarding
Mr. Alfred E. Davidson, the General Counsel of the Foreign Economic Administration.

From his background and experience it would appear that Mr. Davidson would be qualified to render valuable assistance to the OSS group in London, working under Mr.
Chandler Morse on reparations matters.

We will take the necessary steps to request that Mr. Davidson be assigned to OSS upon his induction into the Army and as soon as possible take up his duties in London under Mr. Morse.

Major General William A. Davidson
Office of Strategic Services
Washington, D. C.

My dear General:

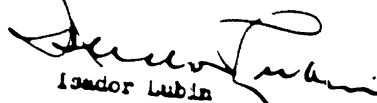

I understand that Alfred Davidson of the General Counsel's office of the Foreign Economic Administration has just been notified by his draft board that he is to report within the next ten days.

Davidson was with Lend-Lease for a long time prior to the consolidation with REA. In recent months he has been doing a considerable amount of work on the German economy. He has refused to permit Leo Crowley to ask for a deferment.

It has occurred to me that Al Davidson would be an excellent person to work with your group in London that is working under Morse on reparations matters. I know of no one whom I would more highly recommend for this sort of work. I understand that, due to the condition of his eyes, he will not be permitted to take basic training. It would be absurd to have a person of his age and experience put in a clerical job in the Army.

May I suggest to you that you have Davidson made part of the OSS organization and assigned to London to work under Morse. If you met Davidson you would readily see that he is of the quality that under any normal conditions would put him in the commissioned officer class.

Sincerely,

Isador Rubin

Dear Pete:

The General agrees with reference to Captain Storrs, while with reference to Captain Davis he does not take issue with the disciplinary action due to the other issue raised in the file. He has directed that he be returned here for separation. I have given this message both to Col. Mann's office and to Jim Cooley. Will you see that the files get back to Col. Pitz after taking out the portion that belongs to the Security Office and other offices. I shall then be glad to sign the endorsements.

1. I agree with Colonel Pitts and Major Donigan that Captain Storrs should be given an administrative reprimand.
2. With reference to Captain Davis, while it may not be possible to institute disciplinary action, the file raised questions concerning his judgment and usefulness overseas. I therefore checked and obtained further facts concerning him. They are:

He spent several years in Hongkong and in 1941 became a member of the AVG. Later he was with Merrill's Marauders and is said to have dropped supplies to the Chinese for resistance. He speaks Chinese very well. He was recruited by MO to be an intelligence officer attached to an MO unit. He has just arrived in Kunming. His school report, which is attached, concludes that the staff is dubious about his value to OSS since traits of petulance and uneven temperament exhibited in the school will be emphasized in the field. Two cables concerning him are attached. One shows that immediately on arrival he stated to the MO man in Kunming that he was not interested in MO work. The other cable constitutes Mann's answer to this complaint. His usefulness to OSS is questionable. The issue is whether Mann's recommendation that he be permitted to attach himself to the 14th Air Force (where he may be a source of future irritation in our contacts with the 14th Air Force) should be acceded to or whether he should be brought back here for transfer out of the organization.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : General Donovan
 FROM : Major Montan
 SUBJECT: Colonel Pitz's memorandum regarding Capt. C. H. Davis
 and Capt. C. H. Storrs

DATE: 3 May 1943

In accordance with your memorandum of 2 May, I have reviewed Colonel Pitz's memorandum dated 30 April concerning the above-named officers. In each case Colonel Pitz's recommendation appears to me to be sound. My remaining comments will be directed to each case separately.

Capt. Davis

The most important evidence in this case seems to me to be the result of the "blood alcohol test" made at the Station Hospital, Prisoner-of-War Camp, Ogden, Utah. The finding of 4.0 mg alcohol per cc blood, while of course not conclusive of drunkenness, is quite significant, since that appears to be the maximum finding used in tests of that nature, according to Dr. Murphy of Medical Services.

It is possible that the Military Police at Ogden, Utah, remembering the first visit of Capt. Davis to that city concerning which a similar charge was made but upon which no disciplinary action was taken, determined that on this occasion the record would speak for itself. From the statements in the files, however, this seems unlikely, and a full analysis of the available testimony indicates that the officer concerned was probably drunk. Since on at least two occasions, Capt. Davis has had difficulty with Military Police on a railroad train, his present Commanding Officer should be informed of the facts so that if there is a repetition, appropriate disciplinary action may be taken. The officer concerned is already overseas; the witnesses to the present occurrence would not be available at his new station, and it is therefore felt that no disciplinary action is appropriate at this time.

It is recommended that Colonel Pitz be directed to inform Capt. Davis' Commanding Officer of the facts in the attached file for his information only and not for disciplinary action.

Capt. Storrs

The statements attached to the delinquency report in the case of the above-named officer seem to fall short of conclusively establishing that he was drunk. The statement of the witness to his actions in the Parkside Grill in which he was allegedly "staggering down the aisle and bumping into patrons" is filled with conclusions and opinion. There is, however, no doubt that the officer was drinking on the evening in question, but whether his bumping into patrons was the result of over-indulgence or over-crowded conditions in the Parkside Grill is not explained. The blood alcohol test made at Fort Myer found the relatively low percentage of 1.6 mg alcohol per cc. Capt. Storrs has had a very good military record and has apparently been recommended for a decoration for heroism in Alaska. This, together with the relatively inconclusive character of the testimony on drunkenness, seems to me to make an administrative reprimand appropriate.

Colonel Pitz's recommendation that the incident not be made a matter of record appears to me to be sound. In order, however, for the punishment not to be made a matter of record, proceedings should be taken by Colonel Pitz administratively and not as punishment under the 104th A.W., since a recital in the required indorsement to the Military District that the officer has been punished for the offense under the 104th A. W. by reprimand would actually make the reprimand a matter of record.

It is recommended that Colonel Pitz be directed to give the officer an administrative reprimand and not a reprimand under the 104th A. W. and be directed so to inform the Military District of Washington.

30 April 1945

MEMORANDUM FOR: General Donovan.

1. Reference our conversation of 24 April 1945, regarding Delinquency Reports on Captain Cleveland H. Storrs, and Captain William S. Davis, the following information together with my recommendations in these cases is furnished. Very little information of these officers' background is available as their Forms 66-1 accompanied them to their new stations.

2. Capt. Davis - This officer was assigned to OSS from the Laurinburg-Maxton Army Air Base effective 29 Jan 45, per par. 9, SO 13, WD, 20 Jan 45, and assigned to duty with MO-CHI. He was in Washington for security check and indoctrination until 13 Feb 45, when he departed for the West Coast Training Center. Enroute, between Cheyenne, Wyoming, and Ogden, Utah, on 18 Feb 45, he became involved in an altercation with the M.P. train guard. He was interviewed by the Provost Marshal at Ogden, and allowed to proceed on the train. Delinquency report subsequently received here alleged that he was drunk and disorderly on the train. I sent the papers to Major Mead at WCTC for such investigation as was possible. Major Mead secured statements from three officers and two enlisted men who made the trip out with Capt. Davis, declaring that he was not drunk nor guilty of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, at any time. On the strength of this I dropped the matter and so informed the Commanding Officer, Army Service Forces, Ninth Service Command, Hq Eastern Security Dist, Fort Douglas, Utah.

On his return from WCTC to Washington, he was again apprehended by the M.P. at Ogden, Utah, on 21 March 1945, charged with conduct unbecoming an officer. He was taken off the train, the alcohol blood test was administered, and he was allowed to proceed on a later train. The complete record of this second alleged offense is inclosed.

I believe that these allegations must contain some elements of fact. I do not believe that an officer would capriciously be taken from a train by the M.P., or twice arrested by the M.P. within a month without reason. Since this officer departed overseas on 29 March 1945, prior to receipt of the Delinquency Report, and a thorough investigation is not now possible, I do not believe that positive action would be justified. I do however believe that these allegations might well be brought to the attention of Capt. Davis' commanding officer, and that he caution Capt. Davis against improper conduct.

Manner of performance rating on form 66-2 of Capt. Davis for last duty prior to joining OSS, was entered as "Satisfactory" by Capt. M. E. Johnson, Air Corps. On 1 Feb 45, Col. E. P. Curry, Air Corps, commanding Laurinburg-Maxton Air Base, requested we change the rating to "Very Satisfactory" and show rating as made by Col. Curry. No other prior information regarding this officer is available. He was rated "Excellent" for the period 29 Jan 45 to 29 March 45, within OSS.

3. Capt. Storrs - This officer has been on permanent duty with OSS since 1 April 1943, per par 10, SO 78, WD, 31 March 45. Between 20 March and 31 March he was on temporary duty with OSS. He was assigned to MO-CT on 1 April 45. He is at present undergoing instruction at the WTC.

What little information is available indicates that Capt. Storrs has a very good record. He has been recommended for decoration for heroism in rescuing occupants of an airplane that crashed in Alaska in sub zero weather.

I recommend that Capt. Storrs be reprimanded verbally and that the terms of the reprimand not be made a matter of record.

 SUBJECT: Colonel Fitz's memorandum regarding Capt. W. H. S. Davis
 and Capt. C. H. Storrs

Since my memorandum dated 3 May 1945 on the above subject, Colonel Fitz has given me the attached correspondence which he has just received dealing principally with the first delinquency report regarding the conduct of Captain Davis at Ogden, Utah.

OK
 The indorsements in the attached correspondence disclose no different facts from those available to Colonel Fitz when he wrote the original indorsement. The unsworn statements of the W. P. and Shore Patrol merely state conclusions and there is no evidence from which drunkenness can reasonably be assumed. It is recommended that Colonel Fitz be directed to reply to the 6th indorsement on the attached correspondence stating that he sees no reason to change his opinion on the first delinquency report but in any case the officer has been transferred overseas and the matter referred to Captain Davis' present Commanding Officer.

The following information was obtained from the files of Who's Who via High Point N.C. Demobilized Records Branch.

PERSONNEL RECORDS ARE CONFIDENTIAL AND WHEN LOANED MUST BE USED ONLY FOR OFFICIAL PURPOSES. THEY MUST NOT BE SHOWN NOR THEIR CONTENTS REVEALED TO THE PERSON CONCERNED OR A THIRD PARTY.

Subject file contains an application for Adjusted Compensation filed on or about August 1, 1927. This gives subject's serial number as 3 119 714 and date of birth as Oct 20th, 1899. It was filed from Calif. It further reveals that subject was in service from Oct 1, 1918 until Dec 14, 1918 with the Rutgers College S.A.T.C. in the rank of Private. It further states subject did not have overseas service.

The claim was disallowed on account of the organization in which subject served as not being on the eligible list.

Subject's Pay Card appears showing pay rating of Private in the above organization.

Due to the very short term of service, subject's service record contains practically no further information, finally showing an Honorable Discharge on Dec 14, 1918.

Information has been received under date of May 4, 1942, that one A.R. DAYTON, called San Antonio light, newspaper to furnish it with a story. During interview with newspaper reporter Dayton displayed a pink typewritten card contained in a window of a billfold, which stated "A.R. DAYTON, Operative G. Orientation Division, War Department". During interview with reporter Dayton complained of the fact that the San Antonio Public Service Company was not furnishing free or one-half fare rates of transportation to the soldiers stationed in the San Antonio area. An attempt to obtain anything of value. Dayton left San Antonio on the morning of May 7th, 1942 stating that he was going to the Hilton Hotel in El Paso Texas.

A.R. Dayton is reported to have made the statements that he was in San Antonio to "investigate the public attitude toward soldiers". He also stated that the San Antonio Public Service Company was giving the soldiers a raw deal, he had been in 32 cities in the last four months and that San Antonio was the worst he had found.

Further information stated that the editor of his newspaper has contacted the US Orientation service in San A. T. Texas and the head of this organization advised that A.R. Dayton was unknown to him.

Further information stated that Dayton was horrified at the morale conditions in and around San Ant. Texas and that "if San Ant. would do more for the Army, Washington would do more for San Antonio, adding that the War Department could either make or break San Ant."

Further information stated that with the new orientation setup the United States could take men who are to be sent to Africa and make them want to go to Africa. Dayton stated "that there were groups of men in the Army who had been in India and Australia, to tell the men all about the countries, to prepare them for it with a social and moral code and the approach toward women there".

A.R. Dayton was described as being about 40 years of age, 5 ft. 11 in. in height, weighing about 160 lbs, dark receding hair, round full face and a rapid Eastern accent.

Information received on July 8th, 1942, stated that a search of all pertinent agencies reveals that A.R. Dayton is in no way connected with the War Department.

This must be wrong in view of data and letters in recent file.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFFSubject: ARTHUR R. DAYTON*Reference: Memorandum from Joint Chiefs of Staff dated 8 March 1946

1. A careful investigation has been made of the matters referred to in the enclosure of the above reference.
2. Mr. Arthur R. Dayton is employed by this agency and has served overseas in a confidential capacity since 1940. While serving in the Middle East he normally appeared as a civilian except upon the occasions when he acted with representatives of British Intelligence. When with the British he acted as a United States Technical Representative with the assimilated rank of Lieutenant Colonel, United States Army. Headquarters, United States Army Forces in the Middle East issued to him two credentials: an Identification Card for American civilian, AG 14569, and a Confidential Pass No. 511 with accompanying badge. He returned to this country for temporary duty in accordance with travel orders issued by HQ, USAFIN, dated 18 December 1944, after the completion of which he was to return to his duties in the Middle East.
3. In 1945 before he was employed by this agency, he was associated with the Army Service Forces in their orientation program. As a part of his duties with that organization he made a series of lecture tours to various military installations within the continental United States. To facilitate his travel among the several posts, his superior requested the assistance of Commanding Officers of the installations at which the lectures were given to assist him in arriving at the post, service, gasoline, and minor maintenance needs required by military personnel on his private automobile as well as his travel.
4. During the past few weeks before his return overseas, he has been required to visit certain Government offices in Washington; instead of using public or Government transportation, he felt it would be simpler to use his own car. When he was employed in the orientation program, his car was frequently serviced at Fort Myer, and without consulting any officials in this agency, he presented himself at the Fort Myer motor pool for the same purpose.

CONFIDENTIAL

5. Investigation reveals that the basic facts are correctly recited in the enclosure to the above reference, except that Mr. Dayton does not appear to have been wearing the Legion of Honor ribbon at that time. The ribbons which he wore were the Victory and Army of Occupation ribbons of the first world war and the European-African Theater ribbon for this war.

6. Mr. Dayton states that he was under a misapprehension as to the effect of his assimilated rank of Lieutenant Colonel. He says that it was his belief that it authorized him to wear the uniform of a Lieutenant Colonel or civilian clothes, whichever was necessary for the accomplishment of his mission. While in the Middle East he appeared in uniform on the occasions when he dealt with British Intelligence officers. Mr. Dayton likewise felt that since his car was to be used for Government business he was entitled to have minor repairs made on it if it were convenient for the motor pool personnel.

7. However reasonable and sincere his misapprehension may have been as to the effect of his assimilated rank, Mr. Dayton's action was wrong. He should have known that he was not authorized to wear the uniform of an officer on the occasion reported. For this reason his record and qualifications have been subjected to a thorough review. The following facts have been ascertained. The security investigation made when he was first employed reveals him to be of good character. He has actively participated in the war although well beyond normal military age. His superiors in OSS report that he has performed his duties in an outstanding manner and that his knowledge of the areas in which he has served and his appreciation of the requirements of the work make him of exceptional value in his job. As a direct result of his activities in conjunction with the British a ring of enemy agents was discovered and measures taken to prevent their operation. No adequate replacement can be found for him.

8. Mr. Dayton no longer misapprehends the effect of his assimilated rank, and he has been reprimanded for assuming the right of using the facilities of the Fort Myer Garage. He has also agreed to make appropriate restitution.

9. In view of the above circumstances, and the value to this organization of the continuance of his work, Mr. Dayton is being returned to his active duty post abroad.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : General Donovan

FROM : Major Anton

SUBJECT: Arthur L. Dayton

DATE: 10 March 1945

The matters referred to in the enclosure by the memorandum from the Joint Chiefs of Staff have been discussed with Mr. van Neuren, Dr. Gordon Loud, Mr. C. C. Catledge, Special Agent, SIC, WWS; Lt. Colonel J. C. Catledge, Port Layer, V-45; and Mr. Dayton. The following facts are clear:

On 1 March 1945 the subject appeared at Fort Myer in the U. S. uniform of a lieutenant colonel. The enclosure to the memorandum from the Joint Chiefs recites that Mr. Dayton was wearing the Legion of Merit ribbon. As a matter of fact, Mr. Catledge, the agent who wrote the report, states that he does not know this to be a fact but relied upon the statement of Lt. Colonel Walters. Lt. Colonel Walters told us that he did not know what kind of ribbons Mr. Dayton was wearing, only that he was wearing several. Mr. Dayton denies that he ever wore the Legion of Merit ribbon, but only the Victory ribbon, Army of Occupation, and Europe-Africa ribbon.

Mr. Dayton possessed a memorandum from the War Department Service of Supply, Army Orientation Division, to substantiate the fact that he was a lecturer in the Army Orientation Program in 1942 and requesting commanding officers to facilitate his transportation to the place of his next lecture. He also produced papers from the Headquarters, Harbor Defenses of Boston requesting the Quartermaster at Fort Banks to issue gasoline and perform service for his private automobile.

Mr. Dayton had in his possession two documents from Headquarters, United States Army Forces in the Middle East; namely, Government Pass No. 211 with accompanying badge, and Civilian Pass No. 14368, stamped "Assimilated rank Lt. Colonel."

Dr. Gordon Loud prepared a memorandum dated 6 March 1945, attached hereto, attesting to the outstanding manner in which Mr. Dayton performed his work for this agency in the Middle East.

Mr. Dayton seems to have had a genuine misapprehension as to the effect of his assimilated rank of Lt. Colonel.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

He appears to have thought that an assimilated rank of Lt. Colonel permitted him to wear either the uniform of a Lt. Colonel or civilian clothes, whichever was more suitable in carrying out his mission.

Mr. Dayton stated that he obtained service for his car at Fort Myer and elsewhere on Government business in the Army Orientation Program and therefore thought that he was entitled to service on the vehicle when he was using it for OSS work. Apparently, his duties required him to visit certain Government agencies while he was awaiting return to duty in the Middle East, and he considered it more convenient to use his private vehicle than Government transportation.

See Bureau

Mr. van Beuren is having someone in his office verify with the Adjutant General's Office the statements made by Mr. Dayton concerning his service in World War I and in the Army of Occupation.

Mr. Dayton has expressed to Dr. Loud willingness to reimburse the Government for any expense incurred in servicing his vehicle at Fort Myer.

There is attached a suggested reply to the Joint Chiefs of Staff which can be transmitted as soon as verification of Mr. Dayton's former army service is obtained.

FROM : Mr. Threin

DATE: 22 APRIL 1945

SUBJECT:

The second page of the attached memo has been re-drafted.

In reviewing the file for this memo the following points should be noted:

1. The assessment board specifically considered subject with reference to the charge against him and concluded that even if true, subject had abilities, skills, and experience which would make him a valuable person in his projected assignment.

2. The J report points out that subject's statement concerning the incident was so detailed and factual that it could be subjected to outside factual verification at every point which would be a means of testing his integrity. It does not appear that this ~~fact~~ has been made. In view of the statement that we believe Wyton was sincerely mistaken in his belief that he was an Army officer, further ~~check~~ should be made.

3. Along the same line the J report points out that subject was vague about his Army experience in the last war and that this may have been for the purpose of covering up the fact that he wore the Victory and Occupation ribbons. Indeed, his statement to J School indicated reenlistment. In his SA-1 form he refers to six months in the Army where he was honorably discharged in 1916 and a subsequent period of duty with the Army of Occupation in Germany as a "uniformed civilian". There may be doubt as to whether this period as a civilian entitles him to wear the

CONFIDENTIAL

Occupation ribbon. Also if he served with the Army in the last war as a uniformed civilian it would indicate pretty clearly that he should understand that he was never a Lt. Colonel in the Army.

4. Since the Victory ribbon does not ~~like~~ like the Legion of Merit his explanation of the confusion on this point is not convincing.

5. Dayton's statement that in the dictionary the word "assimilated" means "accomplished" shows that he had given a great deal of thought to what assimilated rank meant, ~~and that~~ very recently ~~he~~ also states that he wore the uniform with the British in secret ~~service~~ but he never wore it on the street, although so far as he knew, he could have. This statement should perhaps be further checked.

I point these out only as indications of things that might lead to criticism of the type of investigation that was made. Possibly, Major Monigan should go further in his check and not rely merely upon the answers given by Dayton.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE OFFICER IN CHARGE

Subject: ARTHUR R. DAYTON

Re: Investigation in the Military District of Washington pursuant to a request from the Executive Officer, Fort Myer, Virginia, on 1 March 1949, to assist in the establishment of the identity of the Subject, who was believed to be impersonating an officer of the United States Army with intelligence credentials.

On 1 March 1949, Lt. Col. W.B. Walters, Executive Officer, Fort Myer, Virginia, requested the assistance of this Agent and Agent J.D. Christies to determine the military status and authority of Subject, who had driven his 1938 Ford Coupe into the military garage at Fort Myer, Virginia, and requested the Motor Sergeant to "retouch" it. He also requested the Motor Sergeant to gas and change the oil in this car. These Agents were informed of the following information relative to this incident by Lt. Col. Walters:

At approximately 1400 on 1 March 1949, Subject was directed to report to Headquarters, Fort Myer, Virginia, and explain the reason he had placed his civilian car in the Fort Myer military garage. Through an apparent misunderstanding, the Motor Sergeant had permitted Subject's car to be painted completely in the government olive drab color in addition to complying with Subject's request for an oil change and a tank of gas. This irregularity was discovered by the Headquarters, Military District of Washington Inspector, who was conducting an inspection of the Fort Myer military garage on this date.

Upon arriving in the office of the Executive Officer, Fort Myer, Virginia, Subject was wearing the uniform of an army officer with Lt. Col. insignia. He was also wearing overseas stripes for this war and campaign ribbons for the American and European Theaters in addition to the Legion of Merit.

Subject presented United States Army Forces in the Middle East Intelligence Credential #211 indicating that he was a representative of the American Steel Company; and also Army Credential #14368 marked Confidential and stamped with "Assimilated Rank Lt. Colonel". These credentials were signed by Captain Small, whose headquarters were in Cairo.

When questioned by Lt. Col. Walters as to his army status, Subject replied that he did not have an AGO Officer's Identification Card and that he did not have an army serial number. Subject was apparently not very well versed in military procedure and did not know that officers had these items.

Subject indicated that he had been on the Fort Myer reservation about 2 1/2 years ago, prior to the time he went overseas. He indicated that he was to report to the Office of the Combined Chiefs of Staff in Washington, D.C., for his new assignment.

Captain Herbert H. Smellie, Security Officer, Office of the Combined Chiefs of Staff, 1900 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., was informed of the details relative to the Subject, by three Agents and Agent J. D. Shelatine, on 1 March 1945. These Agents requested Captain Smellie to come to the Headquarters, Fort Myer, Virginia, and assist in the identification of Subject. He claimed that he was to report to the OGCs for his new assignment.

Captain Smellie examined Subject's credentials and determined that they were not official credentials of the Office of the Combined Chiefs of Staff.

Further interrogation of the Subject by these Agents and Captain Smellie disclosed that Subject had recently returned to the United States from a secret assignment with the Office of Strategic Services in the Middle East Theater of Operations. Subject indicated that he had a dual mission on this assignment. He was a civilian undercover intelligence agent and a liaison officer with British Intelligence, with the assimilated rank of Lt. Colonel.

Subject disclosed that prior to his leaving this country for the Middle East about 2 1/2 years ago, he was a lecturer for the War Department, Special Services Branch. In this capacity, he used his private car for travelling on official government business. He claims to have known the Motor Sergeant at the Fort Myer military garage at that time and this Motor Sergeant often serviced his car from government supplies. Subject claims that on other occasions when his car was not serviced by a government garage, he placed any expenses incurred while on government business on his expense account. Subject displayed a letter of authorization from the Quartermaster, Fort Banks, Massachusetts, dated 1942, which entitled him to have his car serviced in a government garage, while on official business with the Special Services Branch of the War Department. At that time Subject's car was bearing Georgia 1942 license plates X-617.

Subject claims that he did not tell the Motor Sergeant to paint his entire car in an olive drab color. He only requested that some of the rust spots, which had accumulated as the result of the car's being stored while he was out of this country, be painted. The Motor Sergeant had suggested to Subject that the War Department serial number of the car should be painted on the vehicle. The Motor Sergeant was under the impression that Subject was on legitimate government business and after reading Subject's letter of authorization from the Fort Banks Quartermaster authorizing the car to be serviced in a government garage, the Motor Sergeant suggested to Subject that the War Department serial number of the car should be painted under the hood. This was accomplished. The number "X-617" is now painted under the hood of Subject's car which now bears 1944 Georgia license plates D-95516.

Upon determining that Subject was an agent of the Office of Strategic Services, their security office was informed of the detention of Subject at Fort Myer and requested to send a representative to identify Subject.

Mr. J.J. Gorman, representing the security office, and Mr. Jordan Land, Subject's immediate supervisor, both of the Office of Strategic Services, were informed of his details relative to Subject's detention at Fort Myer, Virginia, on 1 March 1945, in the presence of Lt. Col. W. B. Walters, Captain E.B. Smilie, this Agent and Agent J.D. Christine, at the Headquarters, Fort Myer, Virginia.

Mr. Gorman acknowledged Subject's credentials as being authentic Office of Strategic Services credentials.

Mr. Gorman stated Subject is a civilian agent in the employ of OSS. The nature of his recent assignment to the Middle East Theater of Operations required that he assume the military rank of Lt. Colonel in connection with his activities as a liaison officer with British intelligence. Subject does not have a military status. Subject is not authorized to wear an army officer's uniform with Lt. Colonel insignia within the continental limits of the United States.

According to Mr. Gorman, Subject received no orders, authority, or instructions from the Office of Strategic Services to have his private car serviced in the Fort Myer military garage. Subject assumed this authority without the knowledge or consent of OSS.

Mr. Gorman, acting for the Office of Strategic Services, requested that the Fort Myer military authorities release Subject into his custody so that disciplinary action might be taken without violation of security. This being agreeable with the Executive Officer, Fort Myer, Virginia, Subject was released to Mr. Gorman.

Any losses in materials and supplies as the result of servicing Subject's civilian car in the Fort Myer, military garage, will be reimbursed to the Fort Myer garage by the Office of Strategic Services.

Mr. Robert E. Hannegan, Chairman
Democratic National Committee
Mayflower Hotel
Washington 6, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hannegan:

I regret that General Donovan did not have an opportunity to reply to your letter of early this month concerning Mr. William J. Dawson. It was received just prior to his departure for Europe and before he asked me to talk with you about it. I have called you several times on the telephone and I know that you have tried to reach me on several occasions without success. Since we have not been able to make communications I thought I would write to explain the facts of the case to you.

Mr. Dawson's application is one with which I am personally familiar. He has been carefully considered by this agency on four separate occasions since the first inquiry concerning him on 28 October 1944. In addition to repeatedly and thoroughly canvassing all vacancies we arranged for Mr. Dawson to have personal interviews with representatives of several of our branches at three different times. For two of these interviews he came to Washington at our invitation and at Government expense. He has been given a physical examination. This unfortunately showed that he could not be used overseas and would be qualified only for light work in the United States. Unfortunately, also, his Japanese language qualifications are too slight to be of any use to this organization.

I do not believe that there is any application which has received more careful and repeated consideration. We have made this effort to find a place for Mr. Dawson because of the interest shown in his case by Congressman William F. Ryan of New York and also because of the young man's fortitude and perseverance in his attempts to be of service to his country in time of war.

We do not understand Mr. Dawson's statement that he was given the impression he would be favorably considered for a desk job with this agency. We have rechecked with the people to whom Mr. Dawson talked and I am advised that he was explicitly told that there was no opening for him.

As you may know, in view of the recent reduction in our budget from $45,000,000 to $30,000,000 it will be necessary for us to release a substantial number of our present employees. In all fairness to these employees we do not feel that we should take on any additional personnel unless they have exceptional qualifications not possessed by those who are being released. Unfortunately, this is not true of Mr. Sweeney.

If you feel that there is anything further that we could do to be of service, please do not hesitate to let us know.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Chester

My dear Major General,

Attached is copy of a letter received from The Honorable William T. Byrne, Representative from the 32nd Congressional District in New York, which is self-explanatory.

Mr. William J. Dawson, the applicant, seems well-qualified for a position with your office and it is hoped that you will find it possible to favorably consider the request of Representative Byrne that Mr. Dawson be placed with the Office of Strategic Service.

My dear Mr. Chairman:

I am enclosing a letter that I have received from Mr. William J. Dawson of 113 Berkley Avenue, Cohoes, New York, which I am confident you will find to be self-explanatory.

I have been attempting to aid this young man in his efforts to secure employment with the Office of Strategic Service, but have not been successful. Bill, is confident that his services would be of value to this activity, and in view of the fact that he was given the impression that he would be favorably considered for a desk job with this agency, he has requested my cooperation.

It is a pleasure for me to highly recommend this young man. He has made every effort to enter the armed forces of our country, but since he could not pass the physical examination he has not had the opportunity to serve his country during this period of global war.

Bill, is a good democrat and if there is anything you can do to assist him in securing the desired results, I assure you that it will be greatly appreciated.

Thanking you for your valued cooperation, and sending all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

/s/ William T. Byrne.

Congressman William T. Byrne

My dear Mr. Byrne:

I wonder if you could take up the following matter with the Democratic National Committee.

Three years ago, in an effort to enter the Armed Forces, I took up the study of the Japanese language, thinking that if I knew Japanese, I could find a place as an interpreter. I now have a diploma from Japanese Lower School which I attended at Russell Sage College, Troy, New York. I can read, write, and speak Japanese to a considerable extent. Unfortunately, however, I have been unable to get in either the Army or the Navy due to the fact that I could not pass the physical test.

About four months ago, I was tried out for a position with the Office of Strategic Service, pertaining to interpreting and propaganda work. I was turned down due to a change in their program at that time. Later my case was reopened, and I was called back to Washington. This time I was informed that they had men doing the work that I could do, and, therefore, there was no place for me. They gave me to understand, however, that they would find a desk job for me pertaining to other work. Since then, I have heard no more of the matter.

I would like very much to become an agent of this organization and any assistance you can give in this respect will be greatly appreciated.

Yours truly,

/s/ William J. Dawson.

In accordance with your request we have again reviewed Mr. Dawson's record as well as our existing requirements for personnel. Unfortunately, there have been no developments which would warrant any change in the conclusions expressed in our letter of 12 April 1946.

Dear Mr. Byrne:

I am writing you in the absence of General Donovan. Upon receipt of your letter of 2 March he caused Mr. Dawson's application to be reviewed. He had previously been advised that we could not find a position for him.

As a result of a complete hard canvass of the agency I regret that there is no place in which Mr. Dawson can be used. His Japanese is not advanced enough for work as an interpreter. The fact that he could not pass the rigid physical examination which we have found to be necessary for duty in the Far East means that he cannot be used overseas. In view of this the possibilities are severely limited and the time and expense necessary to improve his Japanese cannot be justified.

I am very sorry that this is the case. Everything about him indicates that he is a person of exceptional character and fortitude. I would like to do something to make him feel that he is a distinct part of the war effort. Under the circumstances, however, I believe it would be a mistake to take him on. He could not be fully utilized and it would only lead to unhappiness and dissatisfaction on his part.

Sincerely,

My dear General Dawson:

Friends of Mr. William J. Dawson of 113 Berkeley Avenue, Hoboken, New York, have communicated with me relative to this man's desire to have his services utilized by your activity.

Mr. Dawson has attempted to enlist in both the Army and Navy, but was failed, since he could not pass the physical examination. However, from information I have reviewed concerning Mr. Dawson, I am certain that if it is possible for you to place him, he will perform his duties in an efficient and capable manner, in view of his deep interest in this type of work.

Mr. Dawson has devoted all his spare time to the study of Japanese language, and has completed a course in elementary Japanese at the Russell Sage College, Troy, New York. I understand that Mr. Dawson recently submitted an application to you, and was given an interview, but has been notified that the position he had been scheduled for no longer existed.

I am of the opinion that you have training organizations, in which to train individuals for particular assignments. I will be most grateful if you will kindly review Mr. Dawson's file and advise me whether you feel that he has sufficient knowledge of the Japanese language for you to complete training, so that you can consider him favorably for the position of a Japanese Interpreter. Such an assignment is Mr. Dawson's ambition, and I will be thankful for every possible consideration you can extend to him, which will be helpful in securing the desired results.

Thanking you for your cooperation, I am

After several years work on the postwar problems of a number of companies, I have become convinced that the one denominator of all postwar discussion is IMMEDIATE V-J JOBS.

This letter is written you with the hope that through your help, I may be able to find, for a Detroit client, men to fill key executive positions.

This company has unusual postwar prospects and in addition, as the result of a study made by their own staff under my guidance, now have a long-range plan of expansion through diversification primarily in their regular lines. MEMORANDUM FOR THE UNDER-SECRETARY OF THE NAVY

SUBJECT: Nathan David - Seaman /First Class - 033-04-02

I am taking the liberty of calling to your attention Seaman Nathan David, a young man with qualities and experience which I believe are potentially of great value to the Navy.

Seaman David is an attorney and has had broad experience in both law and communications. Shortly after this Office was set up as the Coordinator of Information, David was loaned to us by the Federal Communications Commission to serve as Radio Intelligence Liaison Officer. He performed these duties ably and well until early 1943, when he was recalled by the FCC. At the time of his induction in late 1943 he was serving as Assistant General Counsel of the FCC in charge of its War Problems Division. In that position he received a salary of $8,000 per year and supervised a staff of 45 lawyers. He was graduated magna cum laude from Yale in 1934 and magna cum laude from Harvard Law School in 1937. At Harvard he ranked third in a class of more than 500 and was Case Editor of the Harvard Law Review. He is 31 years old, and has a wife and two children.

Seaman David volunteered for induction in November, 1943. Since March, 1944, he has been assigned to the Judge Advocate General's Office and is stationed at the District Legal Office at Great Lakes. I understand that his duties there are extremely light, consisting for the most part of occasional messenger duty and other odd jobs around the office. He has worked on one divorce case, but has been told that he does not have sufficient rank to handle professional matters for which he is qualified. His application for a commission was recently rejected on the ground of poor vision. He is listed as available for immediate transfer.

Memorandum for the Under-Secretary of the Army 1 August 1944

I felt that you would want to know about this case because from both his record and my personal observation of his work while he was with this Office, I am convinced that in the right place David could be of great value to you.

Dear Whitney:

re: Joseph

You are right about the expansion, but specifically I stated to Casey and to Forgan that Dasher was best in liaison. I thought, therefore, that if they considered using him in Central Europe, he should be used in that connection. I felt that he should not be used in any team combination, but that he certainly would be valuable in clandestine work in determining political trends, particularly where the Poles were concerned. That was not said with any finality, but only in answer to a question that Casey and Forgan had asked.

In connection with the attached, we seem to recall that Colonel Kennedy, a week or two ago in a memorandum sent from London, recommended that permission be secured from the Joint Chiefs for the wearing of General Staff Corps insignia by 4 or 5 selected officers in London. Colonel Kennedy also expressed his belief, as we remember, that Colonel Bradley would be receptive to the idea.

The attached therefore seems to raise the questions of whether such insignia approval should be secured and whether Colonel Price ought not to be asked for his approval since he has been in school that only top echelon officers should wear such insignia.

SUBJECT: Authorization to Wear the Insignia of the General Staff Corps

1. Request authorization to wear the insignia of the General Staff Corps.

2. According to the existing War Department regulations, officers of the Military Intelligence Branch, in which the undersigned is commissioned, may not wear the insignia of their own Branch, but only of the Arm or Service with which they serve. Or, if not detailed to duty in any particular Arm or Service, they wear the insignia of the Infantry. The undersigned is now wearing the insignia of the latter arm.

3. This request is motivated by the consideration that the undersigned is soon to report for duty at the London, England, Headquarters of the OSS, where it will be his task to maintain liaison with various Polish establishments, both military and civilian. Particularly in contacts with the Polish military, the undersigned will be called upon to deal with many officers of the Polish General Staff, who -- as all Poles in general -- are singularly sensitive to prestige and protocol. It is believed that the American officer dealing with the Poles will enjoy greater prestige, and thus will be in a more favorable position to perform effectively his duty, if his insignia indicate to the persons concerned the important nature of his work.

4. This matter was discussed in detail with the undersigned's superior, Dr. Robert B. Macleod, Room 1030, Que Building, who concurs in this request.

SUBJECT: Request made to G-2 for the Services of Capt. Thomas Potter Davis

TO: The Director, O.S.S.

At the direction of the Assistant Acting Director, O.S.S., Colonel McNagh, Colonel Gregory and I called on Colonel John Weckerling, Acting G-2, to present him with a request for the services of Capt. Thomas Potter Davis, either on the basis of a straight transfer or on the basis of detached service. The request outlined that Capt. Davis would be an important element in the expedition that is being headed by Major Tolstoy. Colonel McNagh, whose familiarity with the Far East enabled him to talk with knowledge and conviction on the subject, told Colonel Weckerling, that, in his opinion, Capt. Davis was one of the few men in the entire army who might serve in the capacity contemplated, and that Capt. Davis' knowledge of the Japanese language and his Order of Battle background could be utilized to great advantage for both G-2 and O.S.S. Colonel McNagh pointed out that very little was known of the area to be visited and that the information that would be obtained would be highly desirable from the standpoint of both G-2 and O.S.S.

Later the same day, Colonel Weckerling called me to state that he had thought the matter over and was almost certain that he could not grant our request and suggested that as an alternative, we consider Colonel Areadie Gluckman, whom he considered as more useful to the mission than Capt. Davis. Col. Weckerling said that he didn't think that we needed a man familiar with the Japanese language and the Order of Battle experience would not be utilized at all as we would have no chance to get information or intelligence on the Japanese positions, and that what we really need is a man fluent in Chinese and who knows how to handle the Chinese. He stated that Colonel Gluckman had recently returned from China and that General Magruder knew him. I passed this information on to Colonel McNagh and he stated, in his opinion, that Colonel Gluckman was unqualified for the mission as envisioned by O.S.S. Colonel Weckerling had volunteered the information that Colonel Gluckman was considered by some people as tactless but stated that this was no draw-back in dealing with the Chinese; that the Orientals supplied the element of suaveness and that the only way anything could be accomplished was to deal with them very bluntly.

On 22 April 1944, our request for the services of Capt. Davis was formally refused by a G-2 letter signed by Colonel Weckerling. I called him to inquire whether or not this report was his views or whether or not General Bissell had ruled on this case. Colonel Weckerling said that General Bissell had not returned but that he was satisfied to turn our request down without further consultation as he was perfectly sure that "mutual interest would not be served", and that G-2 could get nothing out of this. He again emphasized the fact that it was impossible for anyone to expect to get intelligence regarding Japanese activities from the area to be visited. Since G-2 could not agree that there was any mutuality of interest, the discussion was discontinued until your return and on 22 April 1944, I reported this to the Director's office.

SUBJECT: Request made to G-2 for the services of Capt. Thomas Potter Davis

At the direction of the Assistant Acting Director, Colonel McHugh, Colonel Gregory and I called on Colonel John Weckerling, Acting G-2, to present him with a request for the services of Capt. Thomas Potter Davis, either on the basis of a straight transfer or on the basis of detached service. The request outlined that Capt. Davis would be an important element in the expedition that is being headed by Major Telescoy. Colonel McHugh, whose familiarity with the Far East enabled him to talk with knowledge and conviction on the subject, told Colonel Weckerling that, in his opinion, Capt. Later the same day, Colonel Weckerling called me to state that he had thought the matter over and was almost certain that he could not grant our request and suggested that as an alternative, we consider Colonel Arcadio Gluckman, whom he considered as more useful to the mission than Capt. Davis. Colonel Weckerling said that he didn't think that we needed a man familiar with the Japanese language and the Order of Battle experience would not be utilized at all as we would have no chance to get information or intelligence on the Japanese positions, and that what we really need is a man fluent in Chinese and who knows how to handle the Chinese. He stated that Colonel Gluckman had recently returned from China and that General Magruder knew him. I passed this information on to Colonel McHugh and he stated, unequivocally, that Colonel Gluckman was totally unfit for the position and further stated that Colonel Gluckman was persona non grata with the Chinese and was completely lacking in tact. Colonel Weckerling had volunteered the information that Colonel Gluckman was considered by some people as tactless but stated that this was no draw-back in dealing with the Chinese; that the orientals thing could be accomplished was to deal with them very bluntly.

Today, our request for the services of Capt. Davis was formally refused by a G-2 letter signed by Colonel Weckerling. I called him to inquire whether or not this report was his views or whether or not General Bissell had ruled on this case. Colonel Weckerling said that General Bissell had not returned but that he was satisfied to turn our request down without further consultation as he was perfectly sure that "mutual interest would not be served", and that G-2 would get nothing out of this. He again emphasized the fact that it was impossible for anyone to expect to get intelligence from the area to be visited. The entire G-2 view point displayed moribund thinking and it, therefore, seems that the case is closed unless you want to make an issue of it with the Joint Chiefs of Staff's office. It might also be possible to discuss this informally with General McHarney's office which office serves as a final umpire in disputes between branches. OSS today is authorized by the War Department to appeal any transfer that has been turned down by another agency or branch of the War Department if OSS feels that it has a greater use for the personnel involved than has the agency to which it belongs. In special cases, our directive allows us to present the case to G-1. G-1 can make a ruling on its own account or, if in doubt, it may refer the case to the Chief of Staff's office in which event, it is my understanding that General McHarney's office handles the matter. General McHarney's Executive is Brigadier General Nelson and from him we might be able to get an informal opinion of whether or not it would be in order to make an issue of this case. The appeal privilege is not being used in G-2 cases, in fact, we no longer ask for any G-2 personnel because of the exchange of letters between you and General Bissell. The Davis case is the only exception to date except one that slipped through accidentally; this office not knowing of the existence of the aforementioned letters. The Davis case, of course, seemed to be clearly within the intent of your understanding with General Bissell and vice versa.

This memorandum, therefore, is "written for the record".

Attached hereto is a memorandum from Maj. Tolstoy, in which he requests the assignment of Capt. Thomas Potter Davis, Jr., to him. Col. McHugh and I discussed Capt. Davis with General Donovan about a week ago. The facts, as we reported them to General Donovan, are those Captain Davis worked in Japan with the National City Bank in responsible positions for some sixteen years. He has a fluent command of Japanese, he has been with G-2 for over a year, in the Prisoner of War Branch, although he was lent for a period of some months by the Prisoner of War Branch to the Order of Battle Branch. We talked informally to Capt. Davis and were very favorably impressed by him.

We have reason to believe, however, that Col. Gotschy Jones, Capt. Davis' superior, would not react favorably to a request for transfer.

General Donovan instructed us to approach the situation with great care. He added that he was going to see General Biscoll at lunch, and that, pending the outcome of his talks, we should take no steps of any kind.

Will you please bring Major Tolstoy's request to the attention of the General and let us know if he has any further instructions for us?

MEMORANDUM

TO: Colonel G. Edward Buxton
FROM: J. M. Scribner
SUBJECT: Cable 20241 re Carter

As you have no doubt been advised, cable #20241 from Glavin to you accepts Lt. Colonel G. G. Carter in place of Lt. Colonel Wm. P. Davis for the position in Algiers.

As you know, we were planning to release Colonel Davis on March 1st, and we had planned that Mr. Sumner Williams was to work into the position of Deputy Chief, SO, during that interval.

In view of the fact that it may be found desirable at a later date to send Colonel Davis overseas, and as Mr. Williams is the man we approve as the best candidate for Deputy Chief, SO, and as there is no person occupying the position of Chief of SO, I recommend that Lt. Colonel Davis be appointed Chief of SO, coincidentally with the appointment of Mr. Williams as Deputy Chief, SO.

If this action is taken, and if at a later date, Colonel Davis is sent overseas, Mr. Williams can continue in the capacity of Deputy Chief, and a new officer brought in as Chief. This latter action will not be misconstrued by Mr. Williams who understands that it is desirable for an officer to be the Chief of the Branch.

If you approve this action, I recommend it be made effective February 15.

My dear Admiral Barnes:

I enclose fitness report concerning Captain Ward P. Davis, USN, which I believe it proper that I file with you.

As Commanding Officer of the 1st Naval Command, Captain Davis has been of great assistance in the growth and development of this organization. In maintaining the necessarily delicate balance between his duty to your department and his obligation to us, he has shown himself fair and sensible. In addition, in his work as a member of the NSC Planning Group, he has shown judgment and breadth of view in the necessary adjustment of our program to the fixed military plans. I have found him an officer of superior quality.

Sincerely,

William J. Donovan
